Seizure, Blackouts and Eyestrain

A small percentage of people may be susceptible to blackouts or seizures (even if they have never had one before) when exposed to flashing lights or light patterns such as when playing games or watching video. If you have experienced seizures or blackouts or have a family history of such occurrences, you should consult a physician before playing video games or watching videos. Discontinue use of Sphero Specdrums and your smart device controller and consult a physician if you experience headaches, blackouts, seizures, convulsion, eye or muscle twitching, loss of awareness, involuntary movement, or disorientation. To reduce risk of headaches, blackouts, seizures, and eyestrain, avoid prolonged use, hold your smart device controller some distance from your eyes, use Sphero Specdrums in a well-lit room, and take frequent breaks.

WARNING: Choking Hazards

Sphero Specdrums contains small parts, which may present a choking hazard to small children and pets. Keep Sphero Specdrums and its accessories away from small children.

Keeping Sphero Specdrums Within Acceptable Temperatures

Operate and store Sphero Specdrums in a place where the temperature is between 0° C - 40° C (32° C - 104° F). Low or high-temperature conditions might temporarily shorten battery life or cause Sphero Specdrums to temporarily stop working properly. Avoid dramatic changes in temperature or humidity when using Sphero Specdrums. Don't leave Sphero Specdrums in your car because temperatures in parked cars can exceed this range. When you're using Sphero Specdrums or charging the battery, it is normal for Sphero Specdrums to get warm.

Use and Maintenance

WARNING: Sphero Specdrums is not suitable for use by children under 5 years of age.

Never:

- Abuse, throw, drop, submerge in water, puncture, violently kick, or step on Sphero Specdrums. This can damage the ring and compromise its safe operation.
- Operate Sphero Specdrums in dangerous, hazardous, or public areas where use is not permitted (airports, trains, etc.). Check whether use of Sphero Specdrums is permitted before using it in public areas or public transport.
- Use the Sphero supplied USB cord to charge any device other than Sphero Specdrums.

Always:

- Periodically examine Sphero Specdrums for potential hazards such as cracked, damaged, or otherwise broken parts. In the event of such damage, do not use Sphero Specdrums until it can be replaced or repaired.
- Clean your Sphero Specdrums after use to avoid color distortion or skin irritation.
- Ensure both Sphero Specdrums and your skin are dry before wearing the ring.

Battery Warning

- Non-compliance with the instructions below could result in gas being given off, fire, electric shock, or an explosion.
- Lithium polymer batteries are extremely hazardous and liable to cause serious injuries to persons or property. The user accepts liability for the use of a lithium polymer battery. As the manufacturer and the distributor cannot ensure the battery is used correctly (charging, discharging, storage, etc.), they cannot be held liable for damages caused to persons or property by improperly used batteries.
- In the event of battery leakage, avoid the liquid coming into contact with skin and eyes. In case of contact with the skin, wash copiously with soap and water. In case of contact with the eyes, rinse copiously with cold water and consult a doctor. If you notice a suspicious smell or noise, or observe smoke, disconnect it immediately.

Charging

- Examine Sphero Specdrums regularly for damage to the cord, plug, enclosure, or other parts. Never use a damaged cord or other parts. Use only the supplied USB cable and powered USB port rated at 5vDC 500mA. Misuse can cause electrical shock.
- Never charge a leaky battery or one that has been damaged. Do not use the Sphero Specdrums USB cable to charge any other battery than the provided rechargeable battery.
- Do not charge the battery near inflammable materials or on an inflammable surface (carpet, wooden flooring, wooden furniture, etc.) or conducting surface. Do not leave Sphero Specdrums unattended during charging.
- Never charge the device immediately after use while it is still hot. Let it cool down to room temperature.
- Batteries are only to be charged under adult supervision.
- Do not cover Sphero Specdrums while the battery is charging. Recharge the battery at a temperature of between 0°C - 40°C (32°F - 104°F).

Use and storage

- Inform your children of related hazards such as the possibility of Sphero Specdrums restricting blood circulation when worn too tightly. Verify the ring does not wrap the children's fingers or body parts tightly resulting in restricted blood circulation. If so, stop using the product.
- Do not wear Sphero Specdrums while sleeping or for long periods of time without break.
- Do not use Sphero Specdrums if its cover has been broken and the battery's plastic cover has been cracked or compromised in any way.
