

Reading & Writing Program Description:

The Reading & Writing program is designed for children aged 5-12 with fluent (or near fluent) levels of Mandarin Chinese.

Format: Classes are based around themed storybook reading. Students begin building literacy, then work on competency in reading, from guided reading to autonomous reading, and then we can achieve the goal of cultivating lifelong readers. While achieving reading goals, we work on language competence and cultural knowledge as well.

Cultural knowledge:

students will learn about

- Chinese idioms
- Ancient myths
- Classic stories
- Famous Chinese people
- Traditional festivals
- Chinese folk culture
- Chinese poets
- Chinese architecture

....and many other aspects of Chinese culture.

Teaching focus: Teachers focus on five aspects- listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking.

- Each level focuses on ten reading topics, and the story contents cover topics such as: daily life, natural science, social interactions, emotional expression, culture, and art, etc.
- The lessons guide students to learn words and sentences in the context of the stories they read.
- Students will enhance their reading ability, and also gain an in-depth understanding of Chinese culture
- Each level has 10 topics and units and each topic has 5 lessons
