

EMPOWER RESEARCH

PolicyMap brings research-ready data, sophisticated mapping, and powerful analytics to disciplines far beyond traditional GIS and planning. With PolicyMap, students can focus on insights and exploration rather than data wrangling, unlocking new perspectives in their research and projects.

Explore a wide array of neighborhood-level data across disciplines including:

- Political Science
- Sociology
- Social Work
- Public Health
- Economics
- Law
- Business
- Marketing
- Public Administration & Policy
- Environmental Science
- Urban Studies & Planning
