

Broker Accreditation Application

Thanks for your interest in becoming an accredited broker with us. To apply for broker accreditation, please complete this application form and provide the following documentation from the Document Checklist.

Document Checklist

1. Completed and signed Broker Accreditation Application form.
2. A copy of your current photo ID. This can be:
 - a. Australian driver's licence (a copy of the digital licence is not acceptable); or
 - b. Australian passport; or
 - c. Foreign passport with proof of permanent residency; or
 - d. Proof of age or identity photo card issued by an Australian state or territory (confirming address and date of birth)
3. A copy of your Criminal Record check (Police check) dated within 90 days of your application. Criminal Records are accepted from the following approved providers:
 - a. Australian Federal Police
 - b. Australian State or Territory Police
 - c. Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission (ACIC) accredited bodies
4. A copy of your Credit Report from an established credit reporting agency dated within 90 days of your application
5. Copy of your current industry body membership certificate
6. Copy of your letter of separation if you have transferred aggregator groups recently.

Accreditation won't be considered in the following circumstances:

- a. If you have a serious criminal record
- b. If you have a current or previous bankruptcy or debt agreement (Part IX / Part X)
- c. If you have ever been banned or disqualified by ASIC
- d. If you live and work as a broker outside of Australia

What you need to do

Please email your accreditation application along with any supporting documents to your aggregator. They'll submit your application on your behalf.

If we need any more information, we'll either contact you or your aggregator.

New to Macquarie?

Please look out for an invitation to complete broker accreditation training if you're new to Macquarie or haven't completed training recently.

Next steps

Once you've completed your training, your accreditation will be processed. This can sometimes take up to seven business days.

When you're successfully accredited, you'll receive a welcome email with further instructions and login credentials to our Broker Portal.

We look forward to working with you and assisting your clients with their home loan needs.

Broker authority

By signing the below, I:

1. Confirm the information above is true and correct
2. Authorise Macquarie to contact:
 - The HR Department of Macquarie Group and/or previous line management (if required)
 - Your Mentor if you are currently participating in a mentorship program
3. Agree to the terms of the Macquarie Broker Code of Conduct (the Code) and I acknowledge that complying with the Code at all times is a condition of maintaining my accreditation with Macquarie (<https://www.macquarie.com.au/brokers/broker-code-of-conduct.html>)
4. Confirm and agree that I am responsible for my own access code and password for the use of Broker Portal. I understand failure to protect my access code and password may result in termination of my accreditation.
5. Acknowledge and agree that Macquarie Bank Limited may use information included in this form and may exchange personal and credit information relating to me and my company (as applicable) with other areas of Macquarie (including the HR department) and third parties including credit reporting bodies and credit providers for the purpose of assessing my application for accreditation, assessing my ongoing accreditation, creating or updating my file, making a determination as to my experience, reputation and creditworthiness, and verifying my identity. Failure to consent to the collection, use and disclosure of my information in the ways just outlined may mean Macquarie will be unable to process or accept my application and transactions may be delayed or refused.
