Welcome

We are grateful for your interest in creating a club/organization here on campus. Clubs and Organizations are very important to our community here at Alliance University. Our staff and student body believe this community to be one of interconnectedness, hope, and love. Our hope is that through this handbook you will understand the importance of your role here on campus. Also, that your groups would abide by all guidelines and policies presented, so that you may be a transformational agent amongst friends and peers.

Student Engagement

The Student Engagement Office falls under the guiding principles of Alliance University and the Student Development office. The purpose of our department is to create an environment amongst the students and their peers where they can participate in fellowship and community. We believe that God has not called us to live in solace, but to live as one. Not only do we seek to create an environment for fellowship, but we also seek to develop leaders and bring forth their creative, innovative, and organizational skills. We are committed to engaging and empowering students in a transformational college experience that makes them accountable for their intellectual, intercultural, and interpersonal growth as we nurture world-changing citizens.

As a club or organization, you will help create such a community.

Student Engagement Mission Statement

The mission of the Alliance University Student Engagement Department is to advocate on behalf of the student body as well as engage the student body through programming that builds community, connection with the institution and equips students to change the World. The best way to achieve this desired goal is by living them out through our College's Core Values.

Academically Excellent: Students will engage in programming that supports and enhances their classroom experiences. Along with providing opportunities to explore other academic pursuits.

Intentionally Diverse: Students will encounter peers from diverse ethnicities, nationalities, socioeconomic statuses, and denominations in experiences which will give them common ground on which to share and understand each other's journeys.

Globally Engaged & Personally Transforming: Students will find opportunities to move beyond their existing comfort zones as they realize through cognitive and experiential thinking, that globalization is quickly shrinking our world. This results in new understandings of their own personal beliefs and motivations.

Socially Relevant: Students will find programs that utilize modern technology and are adapted to meet this generation of students. While providing opportunities that are comparable to what students are expecting from a college experience in the 21st Century.

Clubs and Organizations Mission

The mission of our clubs and organizations is to create a culture on campus that helps cultivate gifting and leadership skills, as well as provide students with a purpose-oriented activity that they may use for enjoyment as well as growth.

At the beginning of each year there is an event hosted by Student Engagement which promotes the ways in which students can get involved on Campus. Each group/club displays their information at this event so all are made aware of what is available to them on campus. The list of these clubs and organizations changes on a yearly basis. The date will always be announced within the first 2 weeks of the semester.

New Clubs/Organizations

A club or an organization's purpose must be consistent with Alliance's mission, whether it be on a spiritual, moral, intellectual, cultural, social, athletic, or recreational level. All requests for establishment of new clubs are reviewed semi-annually by the Student Engagement Office. If any club is to request a start after our presentational event in the beginning of the semester, they will need to wait until the following semester or school year to begin. Students interested in establishing a new student club may contact the Student Engagement Office for information on the annual application process.

Academic, Community and Lifestyle Expectations

Alliance University seeks to cultivate a positive, constructive approach to Christian living and behavior, and students are encouraged to develop standards of conduct by which they will be equipped to contribute responsibly to their church, the community, and the family.

Alliance University seeks students whose personal lives are characterized by honesty, integrity, and devotion to high academic, moral, and ethical standards. A classroom demeanor which promotes professionalism, courtesy, and honesty is expected of all members of the Alliance University community. Plagiarism and offensive behaviors will not be tolerated.

Students are expected to refrain from underage drinking. Alliance University campuses are alcohol-free, tobacco-free, drug-free, and firearms are not permitted. A student's personal appearance will reflect neatness and good taste in appropriate dress.

Alliance University reserves the right to dismiss a student who, in its judgment, does not conform to stated regulations governing student conduct (see the Student Handbook posted at www.nyack.edu) or to the expressed principles, policies, and expectations of the program.

The following is the Statement of Community Life for Alliance University students. These lifestyle expectations reflect the mission, values, and rich heritage of Alliance University. A detailed description of specific aspects of these standards can be found here.

Club Registration

Recognized student groups must be registered annually to receive official Alliance University recognition. Without said recognition they will be unable to have Student Engagement assist or sponsor their events, have use of Alliance University facilities, as well as be eligible to raise funds. Registration applications will be made available by the Student Engagement Office in the beginning of each semester. Recognition can be denied by the Coordinator of Student Engagement for failure to register or for violations of Student Engagement Policies.

A mission statement, hierarchical job listing, and ways in which the clubs will function must be submitted all in one document for clubs to be fully registered specifically for new ones.

Requirements, Policies, and Regulations

All Clubs and organizations must abide by Alliance University Student Handbook policies. Failure to comply with these standards will result in severe consequences such as but not opt to club termination. The student organization, through its president, will receive written notification of the alleged violations, will be provided the opportunity to present information, and if appropriate, witnesses, in responding to the alleged violations, and will have the opportunity to meet with the Coordinator of Student Engagement for Programming or with the panel convened by the Coordinator.

Requirements

1. Structured Leadership

There must be some organizational structure in place. (Pres., VP, Treasurer, etc.)

2. Consistent Membership

There must be an attendance of at least 8 members or more.

3. Advisement

Advisors are required for all clubs and organizations. Someone on Staff (not a current undergraduate student) must hold this position.

4. Weekly meetings with club/organization

5. Budgets

Clubs/ Organizations are NOT to create their own bank accounts. All funding will be managed by our Student Engagement and Business department.

Each club is responsible for raising their own funds and submitting that money to the Student Engagement Department, who will then submit the funds to the business department.

Club/organization leaders will be given a monthly budget report.

6. At Least one major event

There must be at least one major event throughout each semester for each club or organization.

7. Campus wide Participation

Involvement on campus is a requirement. Seeking to attend events, going to games, and even attending the Scholar Symposium all fall along the line of ways clubs can show up.

Advisement

All clubs and organizations are required to have an advisor. This person must be staff here at Alliance University but cannot be an undergraduate student. They will be meeting with the club/organization at the minimum rate of a monthly basis. They can schedule more frequent meetings if deemed necessary. Advisors are to be alerted of any mishaps within the club or organization and must report this to the Coordinator of Student Engagement. Their role is to keep watch over the group's budget, decisions, and help formulate big events.
