

FERPA Financial and Academic Information Release Form

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) prohibits the release of certain information without the express consent of the student. Because this prohibition also restricts access to parents, this statement is for the purpose of defining what information Alliance University may release to parents/guardians/spouses/other of our enrolled students.

Please complete this form, indicating your choice regarding the release of your financial and academic records. This statement shall be in effect for all terms of enrollment, unless a subsequent form is filed. If an academic accountability form has been completed with the athletics office, that will override this form.

Please return this form to the office of Student Financial Services or fax it to (212) 226-5794.
