

THE FIZZ

House Rules

Living together in THE FIZZ requires special mutual consideration on the part of residents. Annoyance and disturbance by co-residents must be avoided. The Lodger agrees to maintain peace and quiet in the building and to show mutual consideration for other residents. Mutual consideration, tolerance and a willingness to jointly manage conflicts are all essential prerequisites for living together in THE FIZZ.

1. Living in THE FIZZ.

- 1.1 Persons may only live in the building based on a valid accommodation agreement. This also applies to the use of all communal areas and the underground car park. Friends and acquaintances are welcome to visit. The Lodger must notify the house manager in advance if a friend or acquaintance will be staying the night.
- 1.2 The conclusion of a accommodation agreement for a THE FIZZ student residence building requires prior proof of matriculation.
- 1.3 The Lodger agrees to take out liability insurance with sufficient cover from an insurance company for the living area leased by him or her within 5 days since the date of move-in. When moving in, the Lodger must present and provide the Lodging Provider with a copy of the insurance policy. The Lodging Provider also advises the Lodger to take out household insurance.
- 1.4 The Lodger agrees to open a Czech bank account and provide the Lodging Provider with a SEPA direct debit authorization for the collection of rent due.
- 1.5 The Lodging Provider or its designated agent may enter the accommodation following prior arrangement or posted notice. In the event of imminent danger, access is permitted at any time and must be granted.
- 1.6 Failure to respect the House Rules will result in a fine of CZK 1500 /person

2. Use of the accommodation and living area.

The accommodation entrusted to the Lodger for use must be treated with care and protected from damage. Among others, the following rules apply in this connection:

- 2.1 Furnishings may not be removed or installed in the accommodation without the consent of the Lodging Provider. If the owner gave permission to install the Lodger's own furniture or other fixtures, all such items must be removed from the building no later than on the expiration of the accommodation term. If the Lodger fails to fulfil this obligation, the owner will remove such items at the expense of the Lodger.
- 2.2 The Lodger must immediately notify the house manager of necessary repairs and defects.
- 2.3 Lodgers must keep rooms sufficiently neat to enable visitors to be shown around at any time.
- 2.4 Technical equipment in the accommodation must be used in accordance with the operating instructions issued during move-in.
- 2.5 Damage to furnishings in rooms must be immediately reported to the house manager.
- 2.6 The installation of lock cylinders not issued by the building is prohibited.
- 2.7 Posters, stickers etc. may not be affixed to room doors.
- 2.8 Carpets may not be glued or nailed to the floor.
- 2.9 Lodgers are prohibited from placing signs, photos and stickers, banners, labels, etc. on the walls/ceilings in the accommodation unit.
- 2.10 Floors, windows, doors and co- furnishings may only be cleaned using commercial cleaners suitable for this purpose. Natural woods must be regularly treated with the appropriate polishes. Care instructions must be observed.
- 2.11 No objects/food remains which could cause blockages may be thrown into the toilet or other drains. Discharge siphons must be maintained in usable condition at the Lodger's expense.
- 2.12 The use of caustic pipe cleaners is prohibited due to resulting acute danger to drainage pipes.
- 2.13 Washing or drying laundry in the rooms is not permitted.
- 2.14 During storms or when absent, doors and windows must be kept securely locked.
- 2.15 The Lodger is liable for damage caused by negligence.
- 2.16 The Lodger must immediately file a report with the house manager if vermin or pests are detected in the accommodation. Undue delay or failure to file a report shall result in the loss of the Lodger's potential claims against the Lodging Provider.
- 2.17 Installing and operating additional household appliances such as hotplates, washing machines, dishwashing machines, electric clothes dryers, cooling appliances and electric heaters of any type is prohibited.
- 2.18 Clothing, suits and similar items may not be hung in front of or out of windows. Liquids refuse etc. may not be emptied and/or thrown from windows or the balcony into the courtyard, the yard, onto the roof or into the roof gutters.

- 2.23 Structural modifications to the room, the building or the furnishings are not permitted, even on a minor scale.
- 2.24 Personal property and valuables must be kept securely locked away. The house manager is not responsible for valuables and personal belongings.
- 2.25 The Lodger shall bear the cost of replacing light bulbs and fluorescent tubes. When moving out, all light bulbs and fluorescent tubes must be returned in the same wattage and be in usable condition.

THE FIZZ

- 2.26 Water, electricity, hot water and heating systems should be used economically. In the event of extended absences, the Lodger must turn down the heat and keep windows closed.
- 2.27 The Lodger must ensure adequate ventilation. During hot weather, this can be suitably accomplished by a full airing several times a day to change the air. Continuously tilting the window sash causes significant energy loss, which should be avoided.
- 2.28 Subletting and/or handing the accommodation over to third parties by the Lodger is prohibited.

3. Use of communal facilities in THE FIZZ

Communally accessible building facilities must be treated with care during use, and damage should be avoided. The Lodger is therefore obliged to observe the following:

- 3.1 The Lodger must take care to avoid unnecessary consumption of water and electricity in communal areas of the building. The Lodger must also prevent unauthorized use of building facilities.
- 3.2 Communal rooms must be cleaned immediately following their use. This also applies to technical equipment which has been provided in the communal facilities.
- 3.3 Refrigerators must be cleaned regularly and defrosted at least once every 4 weeks. Stoves (including ovens), washing machines and dryers in the central laundry room must be cleaned immediately after use (remove spilled detergent!).
- 3.4 Sweepings and trash may only be emptied into the trash cans or trash chute provided for this purpose. Official regulations on trash separation (organic waste, residual waste, wastepaper bins, etc.) must be obeyed. Bulky or highly flammable waste must be disposed of by other means.
- 3.5 Lodgers are prohibited from placing signs, photos and stickers, banners, labels, etc. on the walls/ceilings in all communal areas.
- 3.6 The Lodger is liable for all damage caused by himself or herself in all publicly accessible areas of the building.
- 3.7 The house manager will place the respective room numbers on the mailboxes in the building. For reasons of data protection and to maintain the uniform appearance of THE FIZZ, the attachment of name plates is not permitted.
- 3.8 Installation of outdoor antennas and satellite systems is not allowed. Drilling holes in the walls, ceiling and balcony is strictly prohibited since some utility lines are embedded in the concrete and the Lodger does not know their location. The lines could easily be damaged. The Lodger must reimburse the owner for any costs incurred in connection with the unlawful drilling of holes, in the building wiring.
- 3.9 Structural and technical modifications, as well as work which impacts on security and utility services (e.g. locking systems, gas, water and sanitary facilities, electrical network) are not permitted. All electrical devices used by the Lodger must bear the EU's CE conformity marking.
- 3.10 Communal spaces and study rooms may only be used for parties and celebrations after prior consultation with the house managers.
- 3.11 Floor hallways and emergency exits may not be used for parties or celebrations.
- 3.12 Bicycles may not be parked in living areas and/or on the balconies. If provided, a special storage area for bicycles and baby strollers must be used. In addition, bicycles may not be parked in the courtyard.

4. Consideration & nighttime quiet

- 4.1 Residents in our THE FIZZ student residence should have the opportunity to study and do their academic work undisturbed. Living together in THE FIZZ requires special consideration to be exercised. Disturbing other residents is prohibited. Noise such as loud music, slamming doors, etc. should be avoided.
