

Compare and contrast the adventures and experiences of characters in stories.

The City Mouse and the Country Mouse

This lesson teaches students to compare and contrast the adventures and experiences of characters in stories.

Use the book The City Mouse and the Country Mouse.

Instruction

Divide the class into groups. Each group will find the contrasts between the city mouse and the country mouse on the following topics:

- Food
- Sounds at night
- Surroundings
- Dangers
- Entertainment

If this is a whole-class activity, have a reporter from each group report one comparison they came up with. Keep rotating through the groups until all comparisons have been reported.

Note: All Waterford student books referenced in this document are available from your Waterford Manager login. Select Curriculum and search by book title. Books are available in an online version in the Activities tab and a PDF version in the Teacher Materials tab.