

Identify the main topic and retell key details of a text.

Water Is All Around

Read the book Water is All Around, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

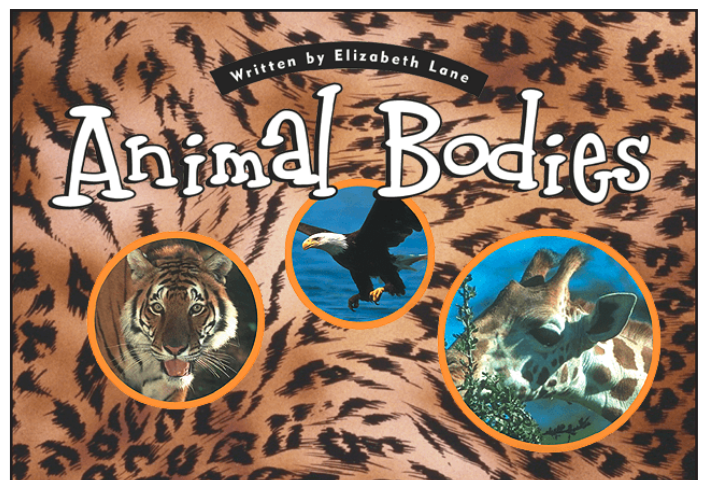

- What is water used for?

Animal Bodies

Read the book Animal Bodies, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

- What are the special things about animals' bodies that help them to survive?

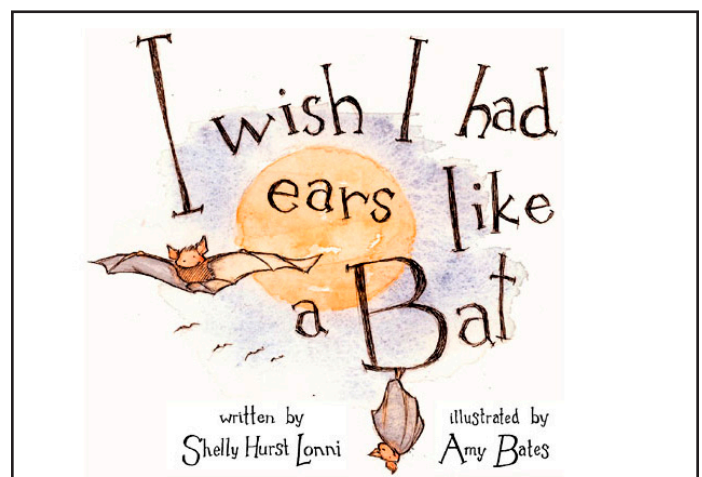

I Wish I Had Ears Like A Bat

Read the book I Wish I Had Ears Like a Bat, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

- What special characteristics do different animals have to help them?

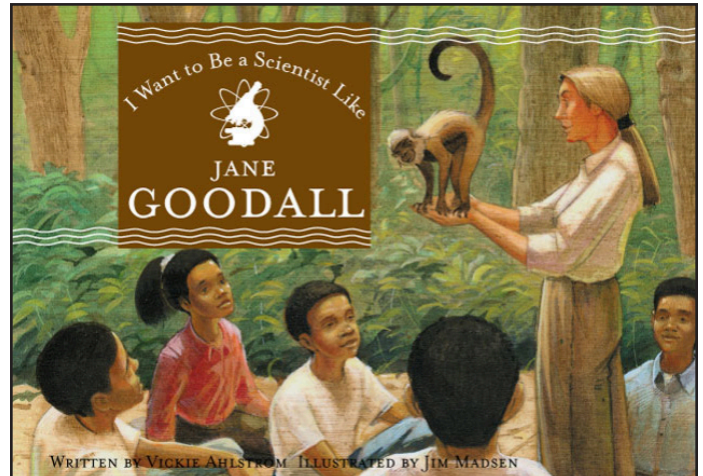

Note: All Waterford student books referenced in this document are available from your Waterford Manager login. Select Curriculum and search by book title. Books are available in an online version in the Activities tab and a PDF version in the Teacher Materials tab.

I Want to Be a Scientist Like Jane Goodall

Read the book I Want to Be a Scientist Like Jane Goodall, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

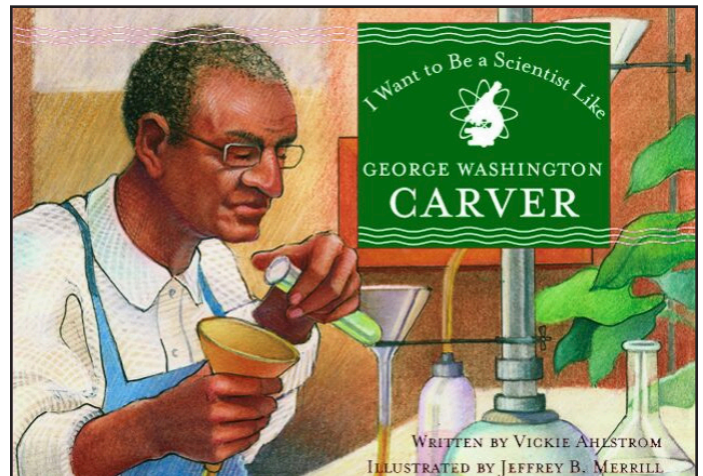

- How did Jane become a scientist?

I Want to Be a Scientist Like George Washington Carver

Read the book I Want to Be a Scientist Like George Washington Carver, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

- How did George become a scientist?

I Want to Be a Scientist Like George and Wilbur Wright

Read the book I Want to Be a Scientist Like George and Wilbur Wright, and use the following question to begin a discussion about the main topic and retell key details of the text.

- How did the two brothers become inventors?

