By the end of the year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 2-3 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.

All activities in RI.2.1 through RI.2.10 provide opportunities for engagement in group reading activities. Look in other standards in the Informational Text strand for specific activities.